Our facility is equipped to produce up to 100 metric tons of herbal extracts and phytochemicals per month. This capacity reflects our advanced manufacturing infrastructure, strict quality control systems, and ability to meet large-scale industrial demand while maintaining consistency, purity, and efficacy in all batches.

Who we are :-

A Legacy of Ayurveda – Over 80 Years of Experience

Our journey in Ayurveda spans more than eight decades, rooted in a deep commitment to holistic healing and natural wellness. The foundation of our expertise was laid by the founder's grandfather Late Sh. Rati Ram Vashisht , a legendary Vaidya (Ayurvedic physician) who earned immense respect across India for his wisdom, compassion, and healing skills.

Throughout his lifetime, he personally cared for and treated over 100,000 patients each year, earning a reputation not just as a practitioner, but as a pillar of traditional Ayurvedic healthcare. His practice became a beacon of hope for countless families, offering time-tested remedies and personalized healing solutions derived from classical Ayurvedic texts and plant-based formulations.

This profound heritage of hands-on healing, herbal knowledge, and ethical practice has been passed down through generations. Today, we proudly carry forward his vision—combining traditional Ayurvedic wisdom with modern scientific advancements in extraction, formulation, and phytochemical research.

Our 80+ years of experience is not just a timeline; it's a living tradition. It guides our mission to deliver safe, effective, and authentic herbal products to people around the world. With every extract we produce and every formulation we develop, we honor the values of our ancestors and the science of Ayurveda.

The founder's deep interest in herbal extracts stems from his grandfather's rich experience as a renowned Vaidya (Ayurvedic physician) in India. Having treated over 100,000 patients annually, his grandfather's expertise in herbal healing and natural remedies profoundly influenced the founder's journey. This legacy ignited a passion for preserving and advancing traditional Ayurvedic practices, particularly in the field of herbal extracts and phytochemicals, which are now central to the NICOS LABS PVT. LTD. mission.

Our facility is equipped to produce up to 1000 metric tons of herbal extracts and phytochemicals per year. This capacity reflects our advanced manufacturing infrastructure, strict quality control systems, and ability to meet large-scale industrial demand while maintaining consistency, purity, and efficacy in all batches.
